THE GOOD LIE

Free Film Screening

A group of young refugees orphaned by the civil war in Sudan that began in 1983 are given the chance to resettle in the United States from a Kenyan refugee camp where they lived for 13 years. After arriving in Kansas City, Missouri, their encounter with an employment agency counsellor forever changes all of their lives.

The film stars Reese Witherspoon alongside Sudanese actors, many of whom were also refugees.

2014, 1h 46 min, English with Slovak subtitles, by Philippe Falardeau
